

Jane Leland
Organist
Holy Trintiy Episcopal Church
Auburn, Alabama

Jane Addison Leland was born in Ashford, Alabama. She attended Montevallo College where she was a piano performance major before transferring to Auburn University where she obtained a Bachelor of Science degree in music education and a Master of Music in choral conducting. She also studied organ with Betty Louise Lumby at Montevallo and Harold Roelig at Huntington College. Jane was married to John Leland, who served as Minister of Music at First Baptist Church of Opelika where she served as an organist and music associate. She has two sons, Paul and Matthew, and two grandchildren.